A Tribute to Judge W. C. Bell.

By unanimous consent Judge J. W. Alcorn was chosen as special judge and the following testimonial adopted and spread upon the records of the court:

Upon the voluntary retirement of Hon. W. C. Bell as circuit judge of the 13th judicial district of Kentucky, we, the members of the Lincoln county bar, offer to him and the constituency he has served, this expression of our personal and professional regard for him as a learned and upright judge, who, in the discharge of his official duties, has at all times exercised his authority with that dignity and courtesy becoming the gentleman of refined instinct, and who in the hearing and determination of all questions in controversy before him, has impartially, as a trained lawyer and scholarly judge, applied the maxims of equity and the rules of law.

As an endearing evidence of our appreciation of his worth, we deliver to his hand this declaration of our esteem, and cause a copy of the same to be spread upon the permanent records of this court.

J. W. Alcorn, M. C. Sausley, J. B. Paxton, P. M. McRoberts, J. S. Owensley, Jr., Harvey Heim, J. N. Saunders, F. F. Bobbitt, W. S. Burch, G. B. Sausley, K. S. Alcorn, Thomas H. Shanks, W. H. Shanks, G. D. Florence, T. J. Hill, Jr.

Many Murders; Few Hangings.

We read a great deal of the murderous disposition of Kentuckians, but after all they are not much worse, if as bad, as other people. Even the State of William Penn has a county, Northumberland, which ranks second in the United States for murders, and first in the failure to punish them. In the last 150 years there have been 120 first degree murder verdicts and yet it will only have its fourth execution next Thursday, provided there should not intervene a reprieve in the meantime, a contingency that is not unlikely. Of the 120 sentences to death over half of the victims found refuge in the insane asylum, some were pardoned, others committed suicide and a number died in jail pending re-trials and long drawn out appeals. The 120 convictions with the death penalty represent but a small percentage of the homicides, many of the murderers having been acquitted and a large number getting second degrees and lesser verdicts. Kentucky has to take a back seat when comparisons are made with this Pennsylvania county.—Lexington Gazette.

Forced Into Exile.

Wm. Upchurch of Glen Oak, Okla., was an exile from home. Mountain air, he thought, would cure a frightful lung-racking cough that had defied all remedies for two years. After six months he returned, death dogging his steps. "Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery," he writes, "and after taking six bottles I am as well as ever." It saves thousands yearly from desperate lung diseases. Infalible for Coughs and Colds, it dispels Hoarseness and Sore Throat. Cures Grip, Bronchitis, Hemorrhages, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, 50c and $1, trial bottle free, guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store.

CRAB ORCHARD.

One of the most enjoyable socials of the season was given by Mr. Ed White, of Cedar Creek, in honor of his friend, Charles Snyder, of Louisville, Monday night. Besides all the pretty girls of Cedar Creek were Misses Mary Maupin, of Richmond, Fannie Thompson, Katherine Melvin and Anna Wilson, of Preachersville, Miss Anna Chancellor, of Walnut Flat, in Newland, of Indiana, and Mr. Charles Snyder, of Louisville. Delicious fruits were served and all the latest games played and the young folks are loud in praising Ed as host and entertainer and look forward to more socials at his hospitable home.

Mr. David Newland and family have gone to housekeeping near the depot. Mr. Charles Snyder, of Louisville, is spending a few days with friends here. Mrs. Sallie Pennington has rented her farm to a Mr. Hamilton, of Oklahoma, and will leave for that State soon to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. O. Singleton. Mrs. Monroe Curtis, of Stanford, paid a short visit to her many friends here this week. Mrs. Will Curtis has been quite sick but is better. Mrs. Barker, who has been so sick, is improving at the home of her son, Pate King. Rev. Walter Buchanan, of Louisville, is with his family at W. K. Buchanan's and has preached four interesting sermons at Hebron. He is quite a promising young minister of the Methodist church. Mrs. Robt. Collier has returned from a visit to Brodhead friends. Mr. Davis, of Knoxville, is visiting the family of Charles Garner.

The Interior Journal.

E. C. WALTON

SEEMS to us that the Danville Advocate has not the proper appreciation of Congressman Harvey Helm, who has done so much for Danville and Boyle county. It is trying with might and main to give him opposition and great will be that paper's disappointment if it does not succeed. It will be remembered that the $50,000 appropriation secured by the late Hon. George G. Gilbert for a government building at Danville would have only been a one-story, squatty structure, as $10,000 of the amount had to be expended for the site. Mr. Helm took up the matter and secured a further appropriation of $30,000 and now the building will be a most slightly one and commensurate with its surroundings. He has cared for Boyle county people in every way possible and now his efforts are directed to having the cemetery at Perryville converted into a National Park and he has reasons to believe that he will succeed. Mr. Price, the Advocate's standing candidate, is a fine young man and doubtless would make a good Congressman, but Mr. Helm has had experience at Washington and is now in position to do his constituency more service than he has ever been able to before and much more than Mr. Price or any other new man could. Give Mr. Helm another term if he wants it and in turn he will give to the people of the Eighth district splendid official service and in elating parlance, "a run for their money."

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL joins the press and public in all the good things they are saying about Judge M. C. Sauffey for governor. Like a great many other people we think he is the logical candidate, and if he can be induced to run we have no fear of the result either in the race for the nomination or in the final election. A polished speaker, a splendid lawyer, a good citizen and a sterling democrat, he would make a model governor and here's hoping that the people of this grand old Commonwealth will some day, not far distant, have him as their chief executive.

THE next session of the Kentucky General Assembly, which will convene in the new Capitol at Frankfort the first week in January, will be mainly conspicuous by the small number of Republicans who will assist in making up the body. Complete returns from every one of the 138 senatorial and legislative districts show that the Democrats will have 60 majority on joint ballot. Thus it will be seen that whatever legislation is done will be charged to the democratic party. This should make the Representatives and Senators move very carefully and consider well before they act.

IN an opinion written by Circuit Judge W. H. Sanborn, of St. Paul Saturday, the United States circuit court for the district of Missouri held that the Standard Oil Co., of New Jersey, was an illegal corporation and ordered that it be dissolved. It was authoritatively stated by officers of the Standard Oil Co. that an appeal would be taken from the decision, as that had been the general understanding between counsel on both in the suit.

THE foot ball record so far this season is as follows: Total deaths, 29; total injured, 209. College players killed, 6. High School players killed, 22. Athletic club members killed, 1. College players injured, 165. High School players injured, 29. Athletic club members injured, 5. And still there are thousands who claim that foot ball is the proper exercise for college students and others.

THE E. M. F. Automobile Co. left two grips, which were said to contain $17,000 in money in the First National Bank at Detroit. When they were opened they were found to have only a few paving bricks in them. Chauncey Hammond, former paymaster of the company and who was familiarizing his successor with his duties, is under arrest, charged with making the exchange.

CALLING for co-operation on the part of the women of other churches, the South Carolina Baptist Woman's Missionary Union launched a movement designed to put a stop to the wearing of big hats in church. The resolution denouncing the "peach basket" and "merry widow" styles of headgear for Sunday wear was passed amid great enthusiasm. Let the good work continue.

STATISTICS show that in New York City in the month of September there were 5,321 deaths, an annual rate of 14.3, and 9,930 births, an annual rate of 26.8. There doesn't seem to be much prospect of race suicide in the country's metropolis.

KENTUCKY had a democratic governor a short while Wednesday. Hon. Corn Linn, president pro tem, of the Senate, held the reins for a few hours. Gov. Willson and Lieut. Gov. Cox both being out of the State.

GOV. WILLSON was a little late in doing so, but he has finally issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. He has been too busy with his tin soldiers to pay attention to trivial affairs.

This and That.

Lockjaw is killing many cattle and horses in Graves county.

The postoffice at Belleville, Brown county, Ind., has been discontinued after running for over 100 years.

William W. Va., makes its two saloons pay $7,000 each for city license. Bristol, Va., imposes a license of $3,000 on bar rooms.

Tom Hill, Joe Gilford and Alec Hill, Negroes, were legally hanged at Floyd, La., for the murder of Moses T. Brock, a prominent farmer of West Carroll parish.

Samuel Gompers was unanimously re-elected president of the American Federation of Labor at its convention at Toronto, Canada. The Federation decided to hold its next annual convention in St. Louis.

Twenty-two entombed miners were rescued alive Saturday from the St. Paul mine at Cherry, Ill., and over 70 others in another section of the mine are reported to be alive. Rescuing parties are prosecuting the search with great vigor. The whole atmosphere in the little town was changed by the news and grief was changed to joy into joy for some and hope for others.

CHURCH MATTERS.

Remember the Thanksgiving services at Logan's Creek church, Thursday night, previously announced.

Special business meeting to be held at the Baptist church next Sunday morning promptly at 10:30. All members are requested to be present.

Deacons.

Rev. J. Murray Taylor, of Stanford, has been recently called to the pastorate of the Centennial Baptist church in Washington, much to the gratification of the congregation. Mr. Taylor is regarded as one of the notably bright and rising young men in the Baptist ministry. He was educated in Georgetown and at the Baptist Theological Seminary in Louisville. Before assuming the pastorate at Corinth, Mr. Taylor held charges at both Corinth and South Elkhorn.—Washington dispatch to Courier-Journal.

POLITICAL.

William W. Bradley has been appointed postmaster at Phil, Casey county, vice J. B. Carson, deceased.

It is said that when Mayor Head went to Louisville 25 years ago he had only five dollars in his pocket.

Judge A. D. Ford will certainly qualify for county judge in January, if he lives, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.—Lancaster Record.

Theodore Roosevelt will be a candidate for Governor of New York in 1910, is the prediction of Congressman W. W. Cook, of the Oyster Bay, New York, district.

William Loeb, Jr., Collector of the Port of New York, announced the removal from the customs service of 104 employees and attaches of the weighing and other divisions of the customs.

A Washington dispatch says that a strong effort is being made to have J. A. Craft retained in his position as collector of Internal Revenue for the Louisville district, regardless of the fact that Ludlow F. Petty, of Shelbyville, is on the "slate" fixed up by Senator Bradley and the three republican Congressmen from Kentucky.

HUSTONVILLE.

Adams Bros. have moved into their splendid new building and a cordial invitation is extended to all to give them a call.

Next Sunday night at 6:30 at the Christian church, mission song service with an interesting program will be rendered. All invited.

On Wednesday evening, 24th, at Alcorn's Opera House an entertainment will be given by Prof. Knabb & Co., which can not be excelled on the professional stage. The prices are 15 and 25 cents.

Wilburn Privitt, who lived for many years on the South Fork of Green river, in this county, was found dead in his bed. He was 82 years old and leaves a wife and eight children, all of whom are married. He was buried in Point Pleasant cemetery in the presence of a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives.

MATRIMONIAL.

John L. Anderson, of Washington City, and Miss Carrie Curry, of Lancaster, will be married Dec. 8.

Weak Women

To weak and ailing women, there is at least one way to help. But with that way, two treatments must be combined. One is local, one is constitutional, but both are important, both essential. Dr. Shoop's Night Cure is the Local. The former—Dr. Shoop's Night Cure—is a topical mucous membrane suppository remedy, while Dr. Shoop's Restorative is wholly an internal treatment. The Restorative reaches throughout the entire system, seeking the seat of all nerve, all tissue, and all blood ailments. The "Night Cure," as its name implies, does its work while you sleep. It soothes and inflamed mucous surfaces, heals local weaknesses and discharges, while the Restorative, enters nervous excitement, gives renewed vigor and ambience, builds up wasted tissues, bringing about renewed strength, vigor, and energy. Take Dr. Shoop's Restorative—Tablets or Liquid—For general tonics to the system. For positive local help, use as well

Fix yourself up!

A red sow with scar on left hip weighs between 200 and 250 pounds left my place Nov. 9. Information leading to her whereabouts will be greatly appreciated. C. C. Gover.

The total value of cotton exports from the United States for the month of October, 1909, as shown by a bulletin issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, reached the enormous sum of $88,883,350. In no one month previously have such exports ever reached the eighty million mark.

LANCASTER COURT.—There were about 150 cattle on the Lancaster market yesterday, most of them of an inferior grade. Prices ranged from 2c for butcher stuff to 4c for yearlings and two-year-old steers. The mule market was very active and high prices ruled. Nothing much in horse trading was done. The crowd was large.

BARGAIN.—354 acres of good land, of which 100 acres is bottom land, eight-room dwelling, two good stock barns, new tobacco barn, 36x96, ice house, buggy house, two corn cribs, etc., two good cisterns, the whole farm being well watered, well fenced and lays well. Will sell as a whole or cut 200 acres with improvements, to suit purchaser, which includes 100 acres as fine bottom land as there is in the county. This is a bargain. See L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

PREACHERSVILLE.

J. K. Sutton went to Lancaster to see his sister, Miss Fannie, who has been quite ill.

Walter Jordan was shot in the face a few days since by careless hunters. The wounds are slight but came near striking his eyes.

We might look 40 States over and not find a more obliging, careful and punctual church sexton than the Baptist church has in the person of William Ranke. He is at his post, hot or cold, rain or shine.

Mrs. Judith McCall, of Brodhead, visited Mrs. E. Foley. Misses Fannie and Ella Thompson, of Danville, visited Miss Hallie Brown in Garrard. John Carpenter and family, of Oklahoma, are visiting the families of W. H. Cummins and wife at J. L. Kennedy's Sunday. James Curtis and wife, of Garrard, visited B. T. Lunsford and wife. Miss Fannie Carpenter was the attractive guest of Mrs. W. H. Cummins.

A few days since we overheard a young man, still in his teens, telling another of the same age how he was going to put a ladder to the window of his sweetheart and carry her off if the "old man don't come my way." The little fellow's gestures were most vehement and fire flashed from his eyes. While we feel almost a brotherly interest in these youngsters, we fear would put a "bee" in the old man's bonnet. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

John Riggsby bought 53 cattle in Casey at from 3 1/2 to 4 1/2. A. J. Yokely bought of W. H. Cummins a pair of four-year old mules for $350; of Geo. O. Spoonamore a pair of yearlings for $325, and a mule each from W. H. Brown, P. B. and J. F. Thompson for $140. Charles Riggsby sold a four-year-old harness mare to Dr. J. A. Harmon, of Crab Orchard, for $185.

Kills Her Fox of 20 Years.

"The most merciless enemy I had for 20 years," declares Mrs. James Duncan, of Haynesville, Me., "was Dyspepsia. I suffered intensely after eating or drinking and could scarcely sleep. After many remedies had failed and several doctors gave me up, I tried Electric Bitters, which cured me completely. Now I can eat anything. I am 70 years old and am overjoyed to get my health and strength back again." For Indigestion, Loss of Appetite, Kidney Trouble, Lame Back, Female Complaints, it's unequalled. Only 50c at Penny's Drug Store.

The preacher—My poor friend, do you attend divine services regularly?
The Tramp—Yes, sir, when I'm in jail.

A red sow with scar on left hip weighs between 200 and 250 pounds left my place Nov. 9. Information leading to her whereabouts will be greatly appreciated. C. C. Gover.

The total value of cotton exports from the United States for the month of October, 1909, as shown by a bulletin issued by the Department of Commerce and Labor, reached the enormous sum of $88,883,350. In no one month previously have such exports ever reached the eighty million mark.

LANCASTER COURT.—There were about 150 cattle on the Lancaster market yesterday, most of them of an inferior grade. Prices ranged from 2c for butcher stuff to 4c for yearlings and two-year-old steers. The mule market was very active and high prices ruled. Nothing much in horse trading was done. The crowd was large.

BARGAIN.—354 acres of good land, of which 100 acres is bottom land, eight-room dwelling, two good stock barns, new tobacco barn, 36x96, ice house, buggy house, two corn cribs, etc., two good cisterns, the whole farm being well watered, well fenced and lays well. Will sell as a whole or cut 200 acres with improvements, to suit purchaser, which includes 100 acres as fine bottom land as there is in the county. This is a bargain. See L. R. Hughes, Stanford, Ky.

PREACHERSVILLE.

J. K. Sutton went to Lancaster to see his sister, Miss Fannie, who has been quite ill.

Walter Jordan was shot in the face a few days since by careless hunters. The wounds are slight but came near striking his eyes.

We might look 40 States over and not find a more obliging, careful and punctual church sexton than the Baptist church has in the person of William Ranke. He is at his post, hot or cold, rain or shine.

Mrs. Judith McCall, of Brodhead, visited Mrs. E. Foley. Misses Fannie and Ella Thompson, of Danville, visited Miss Hallie Brown in Garard. John Carpenter and family, of Oklahoma, are visiting the families of W. H. Cummins and S. D. Carpenter. Phil Thompson and wife were at J. L. Kennedy's Sunday. James Curtis and wife, of Garard, visited B. T. Lunsford and wife. Miss Fannie Carpenter was the attractive guest of Mrs. W. H. Cummins.

A few days since we overheard a young man, still in his teens, telling another of the same age how he was going to put a ladder to the window of his sweetheart and carry her off if the "old man don't come my way." The little fellow's gestures were most vehement and fire flashed from his eyes. While we feel almost a brotherly interest in these youngsters, we fear would put a "bee" in the old man's bonnet. A hint to the wise is sufficient.

John Riggsby bought 53 cattle in Casey at 34 to 44c. A. J. Yokely bought of W. H. Cummins a pair of four-year old mules for $350; of Geo. O. Spoonamore a pair of yearlings for $325, and a mule each from W. H. Brown, P. B. and J. F. Thompson for $140. Charles Riggsby sold a four-year-old harness mare to Dr. J. A. Harmon, of Crab Orchard, for $185.
